Powers

Please return this - it is a scrap I saved from a letter
I had some years ago from a lady in Norfolk Va -
I didn't know her - her letters were very hazy
I didn't continue the search -

Powers

And don't forget that I told you I know there was at least a JOHN POWERS in the Norfolk Borough records. The Borough was established by Act in 1685. Wills and deeds are in Norfolk County to circa 1785. About this time a separate Court was established. The Borough and City records are complete to date in every way. (over)

Now this is all I know, except my husband tells me that Powers is an old family in Norfolk County and just across the state line into Currituck, N.S.C. I know there used to be a family
